 Duncan CobourneGreat system.

Reviewed in the United States on March 1, 2019

Verified Purchase

Our family was considering a laptop to purchase, but we saw this computer at Best Buy and loved the features. We figured that the all in one would take less of a beating because our kids COULDN'T pick it up and carry it around, but it still looked pleasing to be sitting on a desk in the living room. This model was over 975 at Best Buy. We found it here from Amazon Warehouse for 788. Having set up the computer here at home, I'm kind of in love. Amazon says it was "used", but I honestly forgot all about that. Everything was packed immaculately, and the computer showed absolutely no signs of use. The keyboard and mouse are sleek and low profile, The B&O speakers have dreamy sound. The specs were great, we were looking for something that we wouldn't have to upgrade next year, as I use Lightroom and it was locking up my old computer regularly. We got it up and running and it's a dream to use... so fast, graphics are lovely, takes up almost no space. Now we're planning on getting a smaller desk! Smaller computer, more living space! Win/win.

I really like this desktop. It is great for me because the monitor is a great size. I use it for work and I am not suffering from tired eyes. I probably will never use my laptop again.

 Family MusicBeware, don't get duped!

Reviewed in the United States on January 8, 2019

Beware. The stand shows the right model but the actual computer/monitor was a different model (non-touchscreen). You'd be duped if you are not techie to notice the difference. Scary purchase for something this expensive.

If you purchase this P.C. be sure to check all of the Specifications , Features and Options your paying for . I received a non touchscreen model im quite disappointed about that but i had already purchased and had to send back the previous computer i had bought from another seller due to false claims so i just kept it anyway , other than that fact i rather like the computer , its fast enough and has plenty of memory in it so you should never have to upgrade due to lack of storage space . I would have gave it 5 stars if it was a touchscreen.

Worthless All-In-One

This all-in-one is garbage, processing speeds are atrocious and HP recommends a full re-install right out of the box. Unsatisfactory.
